Sauder's Egg Run & Walk Raises $22,000 for Local Fire Companies

Lititz, PA (May 18, 2026) — Sauder's Eggs, a family-owned Pennsylvania company and leading supplier of farm-fresh eggs across the Mid-Atlantic, Northeast, and Midwest, successfully hosted its 2026 Sauder Egg Run and Walk on Saturday, April 25 in downtown Lititz, bringing the community together for a day of fitness, fun, and philanthropy.

The event welcomed more than 300 participants of all ages and fitness levels, who took part in a 5-mile (USATF/RRTC-certified) run, a scenic 5K walk, or cheered along the course. This year's event raised $22,000 with proceeds benefiting four local volunteer fire companies: Lititz, Penryn, Schoeneck and Brunnerville.

"Our volunteer fire companies play a vital role in protecting our communities," said Mark Sauder, CEO of Sauder's Eggs. "We're grateful to everyone who participated, sponsored, and supported this year's event to help make a meaningful impact."

Participants enjoyed a variety of post-race refreshments, including Sauder's hard-boiled eggs, fresh-made omelets, fruit, chocolate milk and water, along with receiving commemorative event t-shirts.

In addition to participants, the event was made possible through the generous support of numerous local and regional sponsors. Businesses and organizations came together in support of a shared cause, helping to strengthen the impact of the event and its benefit to local volunteer fire companies. Their contributions not only played an important role in bringing the Egg Run and
